

Disability Equality and Coproduction Training course

action on disability

Life beyond barriers

Open to all disabled people who live, work volunteer or study in Hammersmith & Fulham

- Do you want to be part of the drive to make Hammersmith & Fulham the best place for Disabled people to live and work?
- Do you want to work together with Councillors and council officers on services and policies that affect Disabled people?
- Do you want to use your lived experience as a Disabled person to shape the Independent Living agenda, which means Disabled people living in the community with the same choices, control and freedom as anybody else?

If so, this training course is for you!

It is free to attend and you will be paid for your involvement. It is open to all Disabled People who live, work, volunteer or study in the London Borough of Hammersmith & Fulham (LBHF).

Funded by

To find out dates of when it will take place, or sign up, please email Nikolaos Tzenas:

Email: nikolaos.tzenas@aod.org.uk | call: 0207 385 2098

Disability Equality and Coproduction Training course

Coproduction means that people with disabilities work together with policy makers and service providers. They actively involved in creating, improving and reviewing rules and programmes that affect them.

Our course covers many topics, including:

- Disability Rights and Disability Activism.
- Different models of Disability.
- Principles and practices of Coproduction.

Our course is:

- Open to all Disabled People who live, work, volunteer, or study in Hammersmith and Fulham (LBHF).
- Free to attend.
- Participants will receive £20 per session for attending.

You will also get:

- Support to develop skills and knowledge for improving services and policies for Disabled People in Hammersmith and Fulham (LBHF).
- Connections to local opportunities.

For dates and locations, please contact
Nikolaos Tzenas, Project Lead – Disability Equality and Coproduction:
Email: nikolaos.tzenas@aod.org.uk or call: 0207 385 2098.

action on disability

Life beyond barriers