HAMMERSMITH AND FULHAM COUNCIL
DECEMBER 2012

MAIN FINDINGS:

WHO WE ARE

- Hammersmith & Fulham's population has risen by 17,251 (10 per cent) from 165,242 in 2001 to 182,493 on Census day in 2011.
- Between 2001 and 2011, the population aged under 16 years increased by 9 per cent, the working age population increased by 13 per cent, while the elderly population decreased by 5 per cent.
- There are more females (51 per cent) than males (49 per cent).
- H&F is the country's sixth most densely populated area with density of 111 people per hectare.
- Three in four residents are of working age (16-64); the third highest level of any local authority in England & Wales.
- The 2011 Census found that 100,500 residents in H&F are from an ethnic group other than White British comprising some 55 per cent of the total population (42 per cent in 2001).
- Foreign-born residents made up 43 per cent of the Borough's population in 2011 up from 34 per cent in 2001 (London 37 per cent and England & Wales 13 per cent); this is the tenth highest level of any local authority in England & Wales.
- 29 per cent of residents had national identities that not refer to a British; the sixth highest proportion in England & Wales.
- 11,663 (14.5 per cent) of households have no people that speak English as a main language; this is the thirteenth highest proportion in England & Wales.
- Christians remained the largest religious group in H&F representing 54 per cent of residents (64 per cent in 2001). One in ten residents stated they belong to the Muslim religion.
- Residents in H&F have better general health compared the regional and national averages, as 86 per cent of all people declared themselves in good or very good health (London 84 per cent and England & Wales 81 per cent).

HOW WE LIVE

- 56 per cent of residents aged 16 and over never married; the fourth highest level of any local authority in England & Wales.
- 40 per cent of adult population were living in a couple (London 48 per cent and England & Wales 58 per cent).
- There were an estimated 80,590 households in the Borough compared to 75,438 households in 2001 (7 per cent increase).
- The average household size in H&F in 2011 was 2.3 persons, a slight increase on 2001 figures (2.2 persons).
- 29 per cent of Borough households consist of a single person under pensionable age; the sixth highest among local authorities in England & Wales.
- In 2011, there were estimated 82,390 dwellings in H&F, some 5,300 more than in 2001.

- The housing stock is characterised by a large proportion of flats and maisonettes (73 per cent of all dwellings) compared to 52 per cent in London and 22 per cent in England & Wales.
- 36 per cent of households in H&F are owner occupier (down from 44 per cent in 2001). The reduction in the number of owner occupiers is the second highest in England & Wales. 31 per cent rent their home from a social housing landlord while the private rented sector is the eight highest in the country (33 per cent).
- The proportion of households that have one fewer room than required (28 per cent) is the eleventh highest in England & Wales. Similarly, the Borough ranked thirteenth highest in the proportion of households that have one fewer bedroom than required (13 per cent).
- The proportion of households without a use of car or a van in H&F has risen since 2001 from 49 per cent to 55 per cent; this is the tenth highest proportion of any local authority in England & Wales.
- 1,841 (1.0 per cent) people live in 260 communal establishments recorded in the Borough at the time of the 2011 Census.

WHAT WE DO

- Less than 7 per cent of the population provide informal care; this is the third lowest level of any local authority in England & Wales.
- 74 per cent of adults aged 16-74 in H&F were economically active; that was the seventh highest rate in London and an increase of 4.6 percentage points on its 2001 figure.
- 66 per cent of the population aged 16-74 were in employment, 5 per cent were unemployed and 26 per cent were economically inactive. The remainder are students.
- H&F residents are more likely to work longer hours than the regional and national averages with a greater share in full-time employment 81 per cent compared with 74 per cent in London and 71 per cent in England & Wales.
- The Borough ranked the second highest in England & Wales in terms of proportion of female full-time workers to the overall workforce (36 per cent of the total).
- The Professional, scientific and technical activities sector is the largest source of employment for Borough residents with 16,072 employees (16 per cent).
- Nearly 42 per cent of the Borough's employed population were working as Managers, Directors, Senior Officials or Professionals in 2011; this compares to 34 per cent in London as a whole.

INTRODUCTION

The UK Census of Population is carried out in order to provide a snapshot of the entire population, including their characteristics and geographical distribution down to small areas across the country. A census of population is normally taken every ten years and is carried out by the Office for National Statistics (ONS).

On Tuesday 11th December 2012, the ONS published the second release of 2011 Census data that was conducted on the 27th March 2011. This briefing provides a summary of the Census statistics comparing data for Hammersmith & Fulham with regional and national figures.

It captures the defining characteristics of the population, who we are, how we live and what we do, and it is grouped into the same three sections:

1. WHO WE ARE

- Population Age and Gender
- Ethnic Group
- Country of Birth
- National Identity
- Passports Held
- Household Language
- Religion
- Health

2. HOW WE LIVE

- Marital Status
- Living Arrangements
- Household Composition
- Accommodation Type
- Tenure
- Rooms, Bedrooms and Central Heating
- Car or Van Availability
- Residents in Communal Establishments

3. WHAT WE DO

- Provision of Unpaid Care
- Economic Activity
- Hours Worked
- Qualifications and Students
- Industry
- Occupation
- Socio-economic Classification

WHO WE ARE

Population – Age and Gender

The population of Hammersmith & Fulham has risen by 17,251 (10.4 per cent) from 165,242 in 2001 to 182,493 on Census day in 2011; this is eleventh lowest population growth in London.

The changes in population for local authorities in London between 2001 and 2011 ranged from growth of 29.6 per cent in Tower Hamlets, to a decline of 0.2 per cent in Kensington & Chelsea.

Based on the usual resident population, Hammersmith & Fulham is the country's sixth most densely populated area with density of 111 people per hectare. It is more than twice as densely populated as London as a whole (52 persons per hectare).

The top ten most densely populated local authorities in England & Wales are all London Boroughs. Population density is highest in Islington at 139 persons per hectare, closely followed by Kensington and Chelsea (131 person per hectare) and Hackney (129 person per hectare).

Map 2: Population density by London Boroughs, 2011

Source: 2011 Census, ONS

There are more females (51.3 per cent) than males (48.7 per cent) in the Borough; this is slightly higher than the regional and national averages (See appendix 1 table 1).

The age profile of Hammersmith & Fulham continues to be typical of an affluent urban population. There are fewer people near the retirement age and a corresponding lower level of younger children than in London and England & Wales.

16.2 per cent of the population is under 16, low when compared to London (19.9 per cent) and England & Wales (18.9 per cent). There were an estimated 29,630 borough residents aged under 16 years (11,900 aged 0 to 4, 8,559 aged 5 to 9, 9,171 aged 10 to 15).

H&F has a higher proportion (74.8 per cent) of the population aged 16-64 than both London (69.1 per cent) and England & Wales (64.7 per cent). This is the third highest level of any local authority in England & Wales (behind City of London 77.6 per cent and Islington 75.3 per cent).

An estimated 16,413 (9.0 per cent) of the Borough's population is of retirement age.

The population aged under 16 years increased by 8.8 per cent since 2001 (London 12.2 per cent and England & Wales 6.8 per cent). The largest increase was recorded in the 0-4 age group 16.7 per cent (1,705 people).

The working age population increased by 13.1 per cent (London 16.8 per cent and England & Wales 15.4 per cent).

The elderly population decreased by 5.4 per cent (London 1.5 per cent increase and England & Wales 18.1 per cent increase) (See appendix 1 table 2).

Ethnic Group

The 2011 Census found that 100,500 residents in H&F are from an ethnic group other than White British, comprising some 55.1 per cent of the total population (42.0 per cent in 2001). The proportion is the same as the London average but significantly higher than the average for England & Wales at 19.5 per cent (See appendix 1 table 3).

31.9 per cent of H&F residents belonged to ethnic groups other than White, compared to 22.2 per cent in 2001. The main ethnic minorities identified are Black African (5.8 per cent), Mixed (5.5 per cent), Other Asian (4.0 per cent), and Black Caribbean (3.9 per cent).

The proportion of White Irish residents as a percentage to the total population (3.5 per cent) is still the third highest of any local authority in England & Wales (down from 4.8 per cent in 2001).

The Borough ranked the fourth highest in England & Wales in terms of proportion of Other White population to total population (19.6 per cent) and the fifth highest in proportion of Arab population (2.9 per cent).

Since 2001, the number of people of Mixed ethnicity had increased by 60 per cent to just over 10,000 in 2011.

In Hammersmith & Fulham, there has been a 45 per cent increase in the number of residents from black and minority ethnic groups between 2001 and 2011. The largest increase of 199 per cent was recorded in Barking and Dagenham and the smallest increase (of 21 per cent) in Kensington and Chelsea.

More detailed ethnicity data show that H&F ranked in the top 3 in England & Wales in terms of proportion of Australian/New Zealander population to total population (4,233 people), Irish (6,321 people), Filipino (2,486 people) and Thai resident population (576 people) (See appendix 1 table 4).

Country of Birth

Foreign-born residents made up 42.8 per cent of the Borough's population in 2011 (London 36.7 per cent and England & Wales 13.4 per cent). This is the tenth highest level of any local authority in England & Wales and an increase from 33.6 per cent in 2001.

In 2011, France supplied most foreign-born residents (4,977), followed by the Republic of Ireland (4,874) and Australia (4,601).

The Borough ranked the highest in England & Wales in terms of proportion of population born in Australasia (Australia, New Zealand and Oceania) as a percentage of the total population (3.8 per cent), the second highest in proportion of population born in France (2.7 per cent), and the third highest of population born in each of Ireland (2.7 per cent), Somalia (1.5 per cent), North African countries (1.3 per cent), Philippines (1.2 per cent), and Spain (1.0 per cent).

H&F ranked within the top five local authorities in England & Wales in terms of proportion of population born in Italy as a percentage of the total population (1.5 per cent), and of proportion of population born in Iran (0.9 per cent).

27,001 (14.8 per cent) residents were born in EU member countries and 4,167 (2.3 per cent) are from the rest of Europe; this is higher than both the regional and national averages.

Hammersmith & Fulham has a significantly higher proportion of residents born in North America and Australasia compared to London and the country as a whole.

The Borough ranked the seventh highest in England & Wales in terms of proportion of foreign born residents who have arrived in the UK between 2007 and 2011 (See appendix 1 table 5).

The Borough ranked the sixth highest in England & Wales in proportion of residents whose age of arrival to the UK was between 20 and 44 (See appendix 1 table 6).

It ranked the eight highest in England & Wales in proportion of foreign born people who have resided in the UK for less than 5 years (See appendix 1 table 7).

National Identity

A question on national identity was introduced in the 2011 Census as an assessment of peoples own identity with respect to the country or countries with which they feel an affiliation.

Overall, 70.7 per cent of Borough residents included any category that refers to a British national identity (e.g. English, Welsh, Scottish, Northern Irish and other categories associated with the region).

26.6 per cent had a British only national identity (London 30.9 per cent and England & Wales 19.1 per cent), while 32.9 per cent had English only national identity (London 37.1 per cent and England & Wales 57.7 per cent).

Other identities account for 29.3 per cent of all categories; this is the sixth highest proportion in England & Wales (London 22.4 per cent and England & Wales 8.1 per cent).

Passport Held

For the first time in 2011, the Census included a question on passports held.

Similarly to the Country of Birth analysis, the Borough ranked the highest in England & Wales in terms of proportion of people that hold a passport of any of the Australasian countries as a percentage of the total population (4.4 per cent), and the third highest in terms of proportion of people that hold an Irish passport (3.2 per cent).

Overall, 17.1 per cent of residents hold a passport of any of the EU member countries (London 11.5 per cent and England & Wales 4.2 per cent).

The Borough also ranked high nationally in terms of people that hold a passport from the Central American countries (4th in England & Wales), and of people that hold a passport form the 'Other EU' and the South American countries (both ranked fifth highest in England & Wales).

Household Language

A question relating to household language was asked for the first time in the 2011 Census and shows households that have English as a main language.

71.8 per cent of households in H&F contain people aged 16 and over who all speak English as a main language (74.0 in London and 91.2 in England & Wales).

Of the other 28.2 per cent of households, 13.7 per cent have at least one member who speaks English but in 2.3 per cent of households the only people who speak English as a main language are aged between three and fifteen.

11,663 (14.5 per cent) of households have no people that speak English as a main language; this is the thirteenth highest proportion in England & Wales.

Religion

Among those who stated a religious affiliation, Christians remained the largest religious group in H&F representing 54.1 per cent of residents (63.7 per cent in 2001). This is a higher proportion than for London as a whole at 48.8 per cent (See appendix 1 table 8).

The second-most common category was "No religion", comprising nearly a quarter of the population (23.8 per cent), up from 17.6 per cent in 2001.

13.5 per cent of Borough residents belong to non-Christian religions, the next largest being Muslim (10.0 per cent of the overall population).

One in twelve residents (8.4 per cent) did not answer the census question related to religion.

There has been a decline in the proportion of the Christian population within the borough (-6.0 per cent), across London (-5.2 per cent) and the country as a whole (-11.0 per cent).

Map 6 shows the percentage change in the proportion of the population identifying themselves as Christians.

Map 6: Change in Christian population, 2001-2011

There has been an increase in the Muslim population in H&F by 6,928 people (61.2 per cent), from 11,314 in 2001 to 18,242 in 2011; this is only the twentieth highest increase among London Boroughs – the highest is Barking & Dagenham (257 per cent) and the lowest is City of London (1.5 per cent).

Map 7 shows the percentage increase in Muslim population in London Boroughs between the two censuses.

Health

Residents in H&F have better general health compared to London and England & Wales as a whole, as 85.7 per cent of all people declared themselves in good or very good health (London 83.8 per cent and England & Wales 81.2 per cent).

The Borough ranked the fourth highest in England & Wales in terms of the proportion of the population reported to have a very good health as a percentage of the total population (56.5 per cent).

4.9 per cent of the Borough residents described their health as bad or very bad; the same level as in London but lower than in England & Wales at 5.6 per cent (See appendix 1 table 9).

Self reported health as collected by 2011 Census is not directly comparable with 2001 figures.

In the 2011 Census, 12.6 per cent of H&F residents reported to have a long-term health problem or disability that limits their day-to-day activities (14.7 per cent in 2001); this is lower compared to both London (14.1 per cent) and England & Wales average (17.9 per cent).

In H&F, the percentage of working age residents suffering from limiting long-term illness at 7.4 per cent is also lower compared to London (7.6 per cent) and England & Wales (8.4 per cent). This compares to 11.2 per cent of residents in 2001.

HOW WE LIVE

Marital Status

According to the 2011 Census, an estimated 85,433 people (55.9 per cent) aged 16 and over never married or never registered a same-sex civil partnership; this is the fourth highest level of any local authority in England & Wales (London 44.1 per cent and England & Wales 34.6 per cent).

29.6 per cent of the Borough residents aged 16 and over stated they were married at the time of the 2011 Census (London 39.8 per cent and England & Wales 46.6 per cent).

The Borough has higher than the regional and national proportion of residents that are in a registered civil partnership (734 people).

Living Arrangements

The living arrangements classification combines responses to the question on marital and civil partnership status with information about whether or not a person is living in a couple. This topic is only applicable to people living in households.

Some 60,569 people aged 16 and over in H&F were living in a couple (married, in a same-sex civil partnership, or are cohabiting with a partner of any sex); this represents 40.1 per cent of the total adult population (London 48.2 per cent and England & Wales 57.8 per cent).

Household Composition

According to the 2011 Census, there were estimated 84,214 household spaces in H&F. 80,590 consisted of at least one usual resident (95.7 per cent); this is lower than the London figure of 96.4 per cent but slightly higher than the average for England & Wales of 95.6 per cent.

The number of household spaces occupied by usual residents in the borough had increased by 5,152; from 75,438 households in 2001 (6.8 per cent increase).

The average household size in H&F in 2011 was 2.26 persons, a slight increase on 2001 figures (2.19 persons). This is the sixth lowest average size of any local authority in London.

28.7 per cent of Borough households consist of a single person under pensionable age (the sixth highest among local authorities in England & Wales); that was a 1.3 percentage point increase on 2001 Census figure.

There was a 4.1 percentage point decrease in households consisting of a lone pensioner; from 12.9 per cent (9,714) in 2001 to 8.8 per cent (7,058) in 2011.

23.0 per cent of all Borough households contain dependent children (30.9 per cent in London and 29.1 per cent in England & Wales); that was a slight increase (1.4 percentage points) on the 2001 figure.

The proportion of lone parents also increased, by 1.2 percentage points, from 9.9 per cent (7,491) in 2001 to 11.1 per cent (8,981) in 2011 (See appendix 1 table 10).

Source: 2011 Census, ONS

Accommodation Type

In 2011, there were estimated 82,390 dwellings in Hammersmith & Fulham, some 5,300 more than in 2001. Only 0.6 per cent of dwellings were shared between two or more households (0.5 per cent in 2001).

Figure 11 shows that only 6.3 per cent of all homes in H&F are detached or semi-detached compared to 24.8 per cent in London and over 53.3 per cent in England & Wales; this is slightly higher than in 2001 at 6.0 per cent.

The proportion of terraced properties in the Borough is also lower than the regional and national averages.

The housing stock of the Borough is characterised by a large proportion of flats and maisonettes. They account for 73.0 per cent of all dwellings compared to a London average of 52.2 per cent and England & Wales average of 21.6 per cent. In 2001, there were 69.5 per cent of flats and maisonettes in H&F.

Tenure

According to 2011 Census, 35.6 per cent of households in Hammersmith & Fulham are owner occupier compared to 49.5 per cent in London with this rising for the whole of England & Wales to 64.3 per cent. This is significantly lower compared to 44.0 per cent recorded in 2001.

12,777 (15.9 per cent) households own their property outright (London 21.1 per cent and England & Wales 30.8 per cent), while 14,620 (18.1 per cent) buying their property through a mortgage or loan - the lowest rate compared to the rest of London (27.1 per cent) and England & Wales (32.7 per cent).

Some 1.6 per cent of households (1,257) reported to have a 'shared ownership'; this is higher than both in London (1.3 per cent) and in England & Wales (0.8 per cent).

Nearly a third of H&F households (31.1 per cent) rent their home from a social housing landlord compared to London at 24.1 per cent and England & Wales as a whole which has a social rented stock of 17.6 per cent. There were 12,683 (15.7 per cent) Borough households renting from the Council and 12,450 (15.4 per cent) households renting from Housing Associations in 2011.

The private rented sector (incl. rent free) is the sixth highest in London and eight highest in the country as a whole and accounts for 33.2 per cent of all households (See appendix 1 table 11).

Rooms, Bedrooms and Central Heating

According to the 2011 Census, the average number of rooms per household in Hammersmith & Fulham was 4.2 rooms (4.7 in London and 5.4 in England & Wales), while the average number of bedrooms per household was 2.2 bedrooms (2.5 in London and 2.7 in England & Wales).

Occupancy rating provides a measure of whether a household's accommodation is overcrowded or under occupied.

The proportion of H&F households that have one fewer room than required was 27.6 per cent (21.7 per cent in London and 8.5 per cent in England & Wales); this is the eleventh highest proportion in England & Wales.

Percentage of H&F households that have one fewer bedroom than required was 12.6 per cent (11.6 per cent in London and 4.7 per cent in England & Wales); this is the thirteenth highest proportion in England & Wales.

An estimated 2,447 Borough households (3.0 per cent) do not have a central heating in their home; this compares to 2.8 per cent in London and 2.7 per cent in England & Wales.

Car or Van Availability

The proportion of households without a use of car or a van in Hammersmith & Fulham has risen since 2001 from 48.6 per cent to 55.2 per cent; this is the tenth highest proportion of any local authority in England & Wales.

There is a slightly higher proportion of households without a car or a van in inner London but the rate is much lower for London as a whole (41.6 per cent) and England & Wales (25.6 per cent).

There were estimated 43,843 cars or vans reported to belong to the Borough residents accounting for only 1.6 per cent of all cars or vans in the capital.

Map 9: Households without a use of car or a van

Residents in Communal Establishments

There were 260 communal establishments recorded in the Borough at the time of the 2011 Census.

1,841 (1.0 per cent) usual Borough residents live in those managed residential accommodation with the accommodation supervision; this compares to 1.2 per cent of all residents in London and 1.8 per cent in England & Wales.

Two third (1,225) of all communal establishment residents in the Borough resided in non-medical establishments, including large hotels, student halls or prisons. This was a decrease of 12 percentage points on 2001.

28.2 per cent (521) of communal establishment residents were in medical and care establishments; 23 per cent (422) of this group were in care homes and five per cent (99) were in other medical establishments.

WHAT WE DO

Provision of Unpaid Care

The proportion of people providing unpaid care in the Borough is constantly lower compared to the regional and national averages.

In 2011, 6.7 per cent (12,334) of the population provide informal care; down from 7.1 per cent in 2001. This is the third lowest level of any local authority in England & Wales.

Of this group, 64.3 per cent were giving less than 20 hours care a week, a decrease of 6.9 percentage points on 2001. 15.1 per cent provided between 20 to 49 hours and 20.5 per cent provided 50 or more hours; these proportions are similar for London and England & Wales.

Economic Activity

According to the 2011 Census, there were 107,754 economically active people (working or looking for work) aged 16-74 in the Borough equivalent to 74.0 per cent of the population (69.4 per cent in 2001). That was the seventh highest rate in London and an increase from 90,115 people in 2001 (4.6 percentage points).

The economic activity rate for males was 78.2 per cent (the tenth highest in London) and for females was 70.1 per cent (the fourth highest in London).

26.0 per cent were economically inactive residents (permanently sick or disabled, looking after family/home, retired and some students) - a decrease of 4.6 percentage points from 2001 (See appendix 1 table 12).

Hours Worked

Overall, H&F residents are more likely to work longer hours than the regional and national averages with a greater share in full-time employment - 80.7 per cent compared with 74.4 per cent in London and 70.9 per cent in England & Wales.

The Borough ranked the second highest in England & Wales in terms of proportion of female full-time workers to the overall workforce (36.4 per cent of the total).

Figure 15 below shows that the Borough residents are also more likely to be employed in roles requiring 49 hours or more. The higher shares in longer hour jobs are offset by lower shares among those working fewer than 30 hours, or part-time employment.

The proportion of part-time workers in the Borough increased by 3.9 percentage points, from 15.4 per cent (12,826) in 2001 to 19.3 per cent (19,230) in 2011.

Qualifications and Students

The 2011 Census data show that 19,515 of adults (12.8 per cent) living in Hammersmith & Fulham have no formal qualification; this is better than the overall rates for both London (17.6 per cent) and England & Wales (22.7 per cent). The 2001 Census recorded 18.0 per cent of adults aged between 16 and 74 in H&F with no qualifications.

Borough residents are more highly qualified than both the regional and the national averages. Almost every second resident is qualified to level 4 or above (broadly equivalent to degree level), compared to 37.7 per cent in London and 27.2 per cent across England & Wales as a whole. This is the seventh highest proportion of any local authority in England & Wales (See appendix 1 table 13).

There were 16,395 school children and full-time students aged 16 and over in the Borough; this accounts for 10.7 per cent of the total adult population (London 10.7 per cent and England & Wales 8.2 per cent).

The majority (65.8 per cent) of full-time students aged 18-74 in H&F were classified as economically inactive, 27.9 per cent were in employment and 6.3 per cent were unemployed.

Industry

Breaking down H&F's employed population by industry of occupation shows that Professional, scientific and technical activities sector is the largest source of employment with 16,072 employees (16.1 per cent).

This is followed by the Wholesale and Retail trade (10.6 per cent) and the Financial and Insurance services sector (9.9 per cent).

The Borough ranked the third highest in England & Wales in terms of proportion of population employed in the Real Estate service sector as a proportion of total employees, the seventh highest in the Professional, scientific and technical activities sector and the tenth highest in the Information and Communication sector.

Figure 17 shows the breakdown by industry of occupation in H&F compared to London as a whole.
